MERIT POINT CALCULATION

- (A) Merit Point for rank in the Merit List for Honours subjects/disciplines will be calculated on the basis of E + H, where,

E = average percentage of the marks obtained in the best (in terms of marks obtained) 5 subjects (Excluding Environmental Science & including at least one language subject).

E for those who have qualified with 4 subjects from Boards/Councils recognized by the University of Burdwan, will be an aggregate percentage of marks obtained in 4 subjects + percentage of marks obtained in the subject applied for or percentage of marks obtained in the allied subject.

H = Percentage of marks obtained in the chosen or allied* subject at the 10+2 level.

[* allied subjects are those subjects which are to be conditionally considered (see points 8, 9 & 14) in case the applicant does not have the subject, at the HS or equi. Level, in which he/she wishes to apply for.]

In case of a tie between more than one candidate in terms of the Merit Point H will be given primacy. If the tie remains unbroken highest marks obtained in any one of the languages will be considered.

- (B) Merit List for the General Programme (in both the Day Section and the Morning Shift) will be generated on the basis percentage of aggregate marks obtained by the applicants in their Higher Secondary or equivalent examination.
